

Lincolnshire Rural Support Network

LRSN Emotional Wellbeing Worker

We are looking for an energetic, flexible, and outgoing individual with experience of working with young people to deliver our exciting new project Fit for the Future. No two days are the same at LRSN, so if you are looking for fun and variety in your working day, and you are passionate about supporting young people you may be just the person we are looking for.

Employment Type: 20 hours per week (including occasional evening and weekend hours).

Contract Type: Permanent.

Location: Home based, with requirement to travel.

Number of Vacancies: 1

Salary: This is a paid post with competitive salary.

About LRSN:

LRSN's vision is that no one in Lincolnshire's agricultural and horticultural community should face difficulty alone. LRSN has provided emotional and practical help to Lincolnshire's agricultural and horticultural community for over 20 years. We are Lincolnshire's listening ear, we understand and can relate to the problems faced by the agricultural and horticultural community in times of crisis, stress, and change. Our services are directed towards offering a hand of friendship and support without judgment, and an understanding that we all experience difficult times. LRSN walks with and empowers people to address the challenges that create barriers to them fulfilling their potential; helping them to get back on track together.

About the Role:

We are looking for an individual with experience of supporting young people to take up the exciting and newly created post of Emotional Wellbeing Worker within the LRSN team. The Emotional Wellbeing Worker will engage young people and young adults aged between 16 and 35 years, from within the farming, horticultural communities, and allied industries in our new Fit for the Future project. This is an exciting new project which aims to improve the health and wellbeing of young people within farming and horticultural communities, and allied industries.

Experience and Skills:

This is a highly rewarding opportunity for an individuals with experience of working with young people and/or young adults to join our life-changing organisation.

Do you have:

- Experience of working with young people aged 16-35 years, and of delivering high quality services in a rural environment.
- Experience of delivering 1:1 support and working with young people/adults with emotional and well-being support needs.

Lincolnshire Rural Support Network

- Excellent communication skills.

If so, we would love to hear from you!

Why Work for LRSN?

We know that it is important to find a job where you feel valued and that you make a real difference. LRSN is a listening organisation, and we live through our values; we listen, we care, we serve others, we value people, and we reach out. Compassion, understanding, and empowerment are at the core of our services, and we always work to leave a positive and lasting legacy after our direct support has ended. We are a small and friendly charity with fantastic staff and volunteers, and we look forward to welcoming the new Emotional Wellbeing Worker to our team.

Application Process:

The full application pack is available by emailing lou.gaunt@lrsn.co.uk.

Once you have received the application pack and would like to apply, please submit your current CV and a letter of application to Lou Gaunt, email lou.gaunt@lrsn.co.uk by 4pm on Monday 18th November 2024.

Please note that applications received after the given deadline will not be considered.

If you have any queries relating to this vacancy, please contact our Head of Charity, Amy Thomas, by emailing amy.thomas@lrsn.co.uk

Lincolnshire Rural Support Network is a registered charity, number 1137678 and a company registered at Companies House, registration number 07182183.

Registered office: Lincolnshire Agricultural Society, Lincolnshire Showground, Grange-de-Lings, Lincoln LN2 2NA

To find out more about us and our services, please visit www.lrsn.co.uk, view our Facebook page or follow us on Twitter.