

Lincolnshire Rural Support Network

LRSN Partnership Coordinator

We are looking for an energetic, flexible, and confident person with excellent people and partnership development skills to join our small but busy team. No two days are the same at LRSN, so if you are looking for fun and variety in your working day, you may be just the person we are looking for.

Employment Type: 40 hours per week (including occasional evening and weekend hours). Job share and part-time working requests will be considered.

Contract Type: Permanent.

Location: Home based, with requirement to travel.

About LRSN:

LRSN's vision is that no one in Lincolnshire's agricultural and horticultural community should face difficulty alone. LRSN has provided emotional and practical help to Lincolnshire's agricultural and horticultural community for over 20 years. We are Lincolnshire's listening ear, we understand and can relate to the problems faced by the agricultural and horticultural community in times of crisis, stress, and change. Our services are directed towards offering a hand of friendship and support without judgment, and an understanding that we all experience difficult times. LRSN walks with and empowers people to address the challenges that create barriers to them fulfilling their potential; helping them to get back on track together.

About the Role:

We are looking for a dynamic and friendly individual to take up that exciting and newly created post of Partnership Coordinator within the LRSN team. The Partnership Coordinator will assist LRSN in furthering, awareness, and engagement with our charity, with a particular focus on developing major donor and corporate fundraising opportunities and growing our income from these sources. As Partnership Coordinator you will have a countywide remit but will initially be required to focus on development in the south of Lincolnshire.

Experience and Skills:

This is a highly rewarding opportunity for an individual with exemplary relationship-building, and fundraising skills to join our life-changing organisation.

Do you have:

- Excellent people skills.
- A track record of developing and maintaining partnerships, including corporate partnerships.
- Experience working effectively in collaboration with a wide range of stakeholders.
- Experience of stewardship of major donors.
- A creative and innovative approach to fundraising.
- A high degree of motivation with the ability to work as part of a team and independently.

Lincolnshire Rural Support Network

If so, we would love to hear from you!

Why Work for LRSN?

We know that it is important to find a job where you feel valued and that you make a real difference. LRSN is a listening organisation, and we live through our values; we listen, we care, we serve others, we value people, and we reach out. Compassion, understanding, and empowerment are at the core of our services, and we always work to leave a positive and lasting legacy after our direct support has ended. We are a small and friendly charity with fantastic staff and volunteers, and we look forward to welcoming the new LRSN Partnership Coordinator to our team.
